- ✔ COLLABORATE with Indigenous peoples to lift up their histories and current realities throughout Boulder Valley

SCHEDULE OF ONLINE EVENTS

Times listed are Mountain Time

FRIDAY, Oct 9, 7:30 - 9:30 pm “Confluence” Film and Discussion

In this short documentary film by award-winning filmmaker Gwendolen Cates, Indigenous and Black activists explore the intersectionality and solidarity of the Black Lives Matter and Indigenous Rights movements at locations including the George Floyd Memorial and the Sand Creek Massacre site. Local Indigenous and Black activists and the filmmakers will host a community conversation after the film. Free Registration at: <https://tinyurl.com/yymaekgl>

SATURDAY, Oct 10, 10 am - Noon Community Conversation: “Some Dance to Remember, Some Dance to Forget”

Join placemaker Meg Walker and public artist Morey Bean to talk about the contemporary disposition of memorials in light of greater awareness around BIPOC activism and particularly related to the Civil War Monument at the Boulder County Courthouse on the Pearl Street Mall. Free registration at: <https://somedancetoremember.eventbrite.com>

SATURDAY, Oct 10, 3 - 5 pm “Roots of Injustice, Seeds of Change: Toward Right Relationship with Native Peoples”

Through this interactive workshop, high school students and adults will learn the history of our country through the voices of Indigenous people, Euro-American colonists and Western historians. Together we will ask how we can live in right relationship with Indigenous peoples today. Co-facilitated by Jerilyn DeCoteau (Turtle Mountain Chippewa) and Paula Palmer, and co-sponsored by Louisville CO Cultural Council. Free registration at: <https://tinyurl.com/y3q5odkd>

SUNDAY, Oct 11, 1 - 3 pm “American Indian Youth Leadership Institute (AIYLI) Forum”

A forum for youth (Grades 8-12) to meet via Zoom and network with other American Indian students and allies in Boulder County. Discuss ideas to support our community members during the pandemic. Fun games and prizes will also be organized during this session. Free Registration at: <https://tinyurl.com/y43mgox3>

SUNDAY, Oct 11, 4 - 6 pm “Arapaho and Boulder Dialogue”

Over the past three years, Right Relationship Boulder has hosted meetings between Arapaho leaders and Boulder officials. Through this dialogue we will learn what steps the City, the County and the School District have taken and how the Arapaho people can be appropriately acknowledged and welcomed in their Boulder Valley homeland. Free registration at <https://tinyurl.com/y6ghvdba>

MONDAY, Oct 12, 5:30 - 7 pm “Healing From Intergenerational Trauma”

Elicia Goodsoldier (Diné/Spirit Lake Dakota) and her daughter Canté Waste Win Zephier (Good Hearted Woman) will speak about their healing work with Indigenous youth. To break the cycle of intergenerational trauma, the depth and breadth of the historical and ongoing injuries need to be acknowledged. Co-sponsored by Pendle Hill. $25 Registration at: <https://tinyurl.com/y3cj5vnb>
